

PANEL OF NEUTRALS

Hon. William H. Abrashkin (ret.)

Hon. Christopher J. Armstrong (ret.)

Mark Bobrowski, Esq.

Lawrence S. DiCara, Esq.

Warren Fitzgerald, Esq.

Hon. Mel L. Greenberg (ret.)

Hon. Harry M. Grossman (ret.)

Hon. Herbert H. Hodos (ret.)

Hon. R. Marc Kantrowitz (ret.)

Hon. Rudolph Kass (ret.)

Arthur P. Kreiger, Esq.

Barbara J. Macy, Esq.

Joel M. Reck, Esq.

Bette J. Roth, Esq.

Hon. Alexander H. Sands III (ret.)

F. Sydney Smithers, IV, Esq.

Hon. J. Owen Todd (ret.)

Joseph P. J. Vrabel, Esq.

Emil Ward, Esq.

David E. Wilson, Esq.

John “Jack” G. Wofford, Esq.

Panel of Neutrals' Professional Profiles

THE HON. WILLIAM H. ABRASHKIN (RET.)

Mediator, Arbitrator, Case Evaluator

Throughout his career, the Hon. William H. Abrashkin (ret.) has made mediation and other forms of alternative dispute resolution a central focus of his work. As a member of the Supreme Judicial Court Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution, Judge Abrashkin helped to formulate the standards and rules for court-connected ADR, and also served as civil program co-chair of the Flaschner Judicial Institute Committee on Judicial Involvement in Settlement. As First Justice of the Housing Court, Western Division, he expanded and supervised an ADR program in his court that resolves a high volume of disputes, including many contract, premises liability, discrimination, zoning, and other cases in addition to the court's landlord/tenant caseload. In 2007 Judge Abrashkin received the Judicial Excellence Award from the Massachusetts Judges Conference, of which he remains a member.

After twenty-two years on the bench, Judge Abrashkin was appointed as Executive Director of the Springfield (MA) Housing Authority, in which position he has served for ten years since 2008. He has taught trial practice at the Western New England School of Law and has published a number of articles in legal journals and a chapter on the Law of Sales in the Massachusetts Practice series. In 2014, he was named as a Purpose Prize Fellow by the national organization, Encore.org, for his "outstanding contributions to solving challenging problems in the second half of life," based on his work on education of low-income children.

A graduate of Columbia College and the Western New England University School of Law (cum laude), Judge Abrashkin served as Editor-in-Chief of the Western New England Law Review, and he has served on many boards, including Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly and the Massachusetts Law Review.

THE HON. CHRISTOPHER J. ARMSTRONG (RET.)

Mediator, Arbitrator, Case Evaluator

Judge Armstrong served on the Massachusetts Appeals Court bench from 1972 until his retirement in July of 2006, over 30 years. From 2000 to 2006, he served as the Court's Chief Justice and was instrumental in expanding the Court's bench from 14 to 25 judges, eliminating the Court's case backlog for the first time in 16 years. Judge Armstrong served as the first Chairman of the Supreme Judicial Court's Committee on Judicial Ethics from 1988 until 1998. He was also a member of the Executive Committee of the Chief Judges Council of the National Center of State Courts for five years until his retirement as Chief Justice of the Appeals Court.

Prior to joining the Appeals Court, Judge Armstrong served in the administration of Gov. John Volpe. He was an Assistant Attorney General under Elliot Richardson. He also served as Chief Legal Counsel to Governor Francis W. Sargent from 1969 to 1971 and as Undersecretary of Administration until his appointment to the Appeals Court in 1972. Judge Armstrong graduated from Yale College in 1958 and Yale Law School in 1961. Currently, he is associated with the Boston office of Hogan Lovells LLP.

MARK BOBROWSKI, ESQ.

Mediator, Arbitrator

Mark Bobrowski is a principal in the firm of Blatman, Bobrowski & Haverty LLC. He is the author of the Handbook of Massachusetts Land Use and Planning Law, now in its third edition. The Handbook is frequently cited by the courts of the Commonwealth in their reported decisions regarding land use matters. He has also written numerous articles on topics ranging from affordable housing to protection of the scenic landscape.

Mr. Bobrowski's teaching and practice have focused his expertise to all aspects of zoning, subdivision control and affordable housing. He is frequently engaged by municipalities to assist with large projects, particularly those requiring complicated zoning changes or development agreements. He served as a mediator in Ch. 40B affordable housing appeals to the Housing Appeals Committee. He has litigated dozens of land use cases before the Land Court and Superior Court and argued many times at the appellate level.

Mr. Bobrowski has written zoning ordinances and by-laws for nearly 100 of the Commonwealth's cities and towns, and he is a regular speaker at the conferences of the City Solicitor and Town Counsel Association, the Massachusetts Municipal Association, MCLE's programs, and the Massachusetts Building Commissioners Association, among others. He served on Gov. Romney's Task Force for Affordable Housing.

REBA DISPUTE RESOLUTION, INC.

LAWRENCE S. DICARA, ESQ.

Mediator, Case Evaluator

Larry DiCara is among Boston's most recognized civic leaders. A frequent speaker at colleges, universities and other venues, as well as a regular go-to source in Boston media, Larry has taught at Harvard, Boston University and the University of Massachusetts.

For more than 40 years, Larry has practiced real estate and administrative law and has been intimately involved with the development process in and around Boston. In addition to practicing law, Larry has also taught at Harvard University, Boston University, and the University of Massachusetts Amherst. He has served as president or chairman of a number of charitable and civic organizations and has received numerous awards and recognitions.

Currently, Larry serves as a consultant to owners and developers before the Boston Redevelopment Authority and most every other city and state agency in the Commonwealth. He has extensive experience counseling clients on legislative matters at the federal and state levels. He frequently travels to Washington D.C. to represent clients and on several occasions, he has been named Special Counsel to Massachusetts House of Representatives with respect to redistricting.

In his 2013 political memoir, Turmoil and Transition in Boston, Larry describes how he was affected personally and politically by the 1970s federally mandated policy that required Boston public school students to be reassigned to schools around the city in order to achieve racial integration.

From 1972 to 1981, DiCara was a member of the Boston City Council. In 1978, he was the Council President. When he took office at the age of 22, he became the youngest person to ever serve on the Boston City Council.

In 1978, Larry was President of the Boston City Council, as well as a candidate for Treasurer and Receiver-General of Massachusetts. He finished second in the Democratic Primary behind incumbent Robert Q. Crane. In 1983 he was a candidate for Mayor of Boston. He finished in fourth place with 9.09% of the vote. In 1992 DiCara was an unsuccessful candidate for Chairman of the Massachusetts Democratic Party.

Larry has degrees from University of Massachusetts, LL.D., (Hon.); Harvard University, John F. Kennedy School of Government, MPA; Suffolk University Law School, JD; and Harvard College, AB, cum laude. In 1966, he attended Massachusetts Boys State and was elected to represent Massachusetts at American Legion Boys Nation. Larry is a native of Dorchester and graduate of the Boston Latin School. He resides in Boston.

WARREN FITZGERALD, ESQ.

Mediator, Case Evaluator

Warren Fitzgerald is a full-time mediator with a wide-range of experience settling cases in many areas of the law, including easements, condominium, environmental contamination, construction, premises liability, business disputes, contracts, insurance coverage, labor and employment, intellectual property, product liability, fires and explosions, professional and medical malpractice, property damage, admiralty, estates and consumer class actions.

Mr. Fitzgerald has more than 30 years' experience as a trial lawyer and negotiator representing both plaintiffs and defendants in business, commercial, municipal and personal injury litigation. He was an associate with the firms of Hutchins & Wheeler and Parker, Coulter, Daley & White and was a partner at Meehan, Boyle & Cohen for 22 years. He began mediating at the request of fellow trial lawyers in the 1980's and participated in several court-supported mediation programs before starting Fitzgerald Dispute Resolution LLC.

A past president of the Massachusetts Bar Association (MBA) and the Massachusetts Academy of Trial Attorneys, Mr. Fitzgerald has lectured many times on topics relating to trial practice and dispute resolution for MCLE and numerous law schools and bar associations. He was chair of the MBA Dispute Resolution Committee from 2007 to 2009 and has been a member of the Massachusetts Trial Court Standing Committee on Dispute Resolution since 2007. He was elected to the American Board of Trial Advocates in 2009. He graduated from Boston University, magna cum laude with distinction, where he was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa, and Boston University School of Law, where he was an editor of The Law Review.

REBA DISPUTE RESOLUTION, INC.

THE HON. MEL L. GREENBERG (RET.)

Mediator, Arbitrator, Case Evaluator

Judge Greenberg served on the Appeals Court bench from 1990 to 2007, after many years of experience on the Trial Court bench. He served on the District Court bench from 1977 to 1983, in the District Court's Appellate Division from 1980 to 1983 and on the Superior Court bench from 1983 to 1990. Prior to 1977, he practiced law in Worcester.

Judge Greenberg is a member of the Massachusetts Judges' Conference, the American Law Institute (ALI) and the New England Appellate Judges' Conference. He has also served as chair of the Boston Bar Association's Bench Bar Committee and as a faculty member of the National Judicial College in Reno, Nevada.

A magna cum laude graduate of Clark University, Judge Greenberg received his J.D. from Boston University School of Law, and he also served in the Judge Advocate General Staff of the United States Army Reserve. He is a member of the REBA/DR Board of Directors.

THE HON. HARRY M. GROSSMAN (RET.)

Mediator, Arbitrator, Case Evaluator

Judge Grossman served as an Associate Justice of the Land Court from 2006 to 2014. A graduate of Tufts University, he received his law degree from Suffolk University Law School followed by his L.L.M. in Taxation from the Boston University School of Law.

Judge Grossman began his lengthy public service career at the Massachusetts Department of Revenue, where he served, in turn, as legal counsel to the Division of Local Services, Chief of the Property Tax Bureau, and as the Department's First Deputy Commissioner. Thereafter, he served in the administrations of Governor Cellucci, Acting-Governor Swift and Governor Romney as General Counsel for the Executive Office for Administration and Finance.

Prior to his service on the bench, Judge Grossman served for many years as Adjunct Professor of Business Law at Suffolk University's Sawyer School of Management. During the same period, he served as member and chair of his local zoning board of appeals. Judge Grossman is a member of REBA/DR's Board of Directors.

THE HON. HERBERT H. HODOS (RET.)

Mediator, Arbitrator, Case Evaluator

Judge Hodos served on the Massachusetts District Court bench as an associate justice and then First Justice of the Greenfield District Court from 1993 until his retirement in 2008. In 2008, he was awarded the judicial excellence award for the District Court by the Massachusetts Judges Conference. After his retirement he served as a board member of the Massachusetts Board of Registration in Medicine from 2008-2012. He served as Vice-Chair of the Board and Chair of the Complaint Committee.

Prior to becoming a judge, Judge Hodos practiced law at Robinson and Dibble, and at Levy, Winer, where he was a partner. He also served as a part-time district prosecutor in Franklin and Hampshire counties. He has a breadth of experience as a general practitioner and concentrated in real estate, land use and probate law in his later years of practice.

Judge Hodos has served on many civic, religious and charitable organizations over the years, including presidency of the Franklin County Bar Association, delegate and executive committee of the Massachusetts Bar Association, and is currently a board member of Community Legal Aid. He received his B.A. from Yale University and his J.D. from Boston College Law School.

REBA DISPUTE RESOLUTION, INC.

THE HON. R. MARC KANTROWITZ (RET.)

Mediator, Arbitrator, Case Evaluator

Judge Kantrowitz served as an associate justice in both the Trial Court and Appeals Court where he handled scores of land use related cases. In 2015, three days after leaving the bench, he was in Athens, Ohio serving as a visiting professor/scholar at his alma mater, Ohio University, both lecturing and teaching for the fall semester. The course he taught centered around his most recent book, Old Whiskey and Young Women: American True Crime Tales of Murder, Sex and Scandal. In addition to his non-legal writing, which includes three other history-related books, Kantrowitz is the most highly published attorney in the Commonwealth on state law. He has either authored or co-authored books on criminal law, motor vehicle tort law, juvenile law, evidence, and mental health law. He has also written numerous law-related articles and chapters.

While a judge, he served on several SJC committees, most notably as a member of the Model Murder-Manslaughter Jury Instructions Committee; as a member and acting chair of the Bishop-Fuller Committee, established to develop protocol concerning the rights of criminal defendants to review the psychiatric records of complainants who sought psychiatric care; and, perhaps most tellingly, he created and chaired, for several years, the Advisory Committee on Massachusetts Evidence Law, established to assemble the current law into one easily usable document. The Massachusetts Guide to Evidence (Flaschner), created under his guidance, is a mainstay, along with his Criminal Law Sourcebook (MCLE), in courts throughout the Commonwealth. He has also taught at various local institutions and currently teaches criminal trial advocacy at Northeastern University's School of Law.

From 1972 to 1985, Judge Kantrowitz served in the U.S. Army Reserves, leaving as a Captain in the Quartermaster Corps. He earned a B.A., cum laude, from Ohio University, an M.A. in political science from Ohio University, and a J.D. from University of Toledo College of Law. To learn more, visit rmarckantrowitz.com.

THE HON. RUDOLPH KASS (RET.)

Mediator, Arbitrator, Case Evaluator

Judge Kass served as a justice of the Massachusetts Appeals Court from 1979 (with a year hiatus when mediating for REBA/DR) until his retirement as a recall judge on the Appeals Court bench in 2003. During that period, he authored close to 2000 opinions, many in real estate-related fields. Prior to his appointment to the Appeals Court, he was a partner in the Boston firm of Brown, Rudnick, Freed & Gesmer, known today as Brown Rudnick, LLP, where his field of concentration was real estate law-related with an emphasis on government-assisted housing.

Having participated in a Boston Bar Association committee that drafted, and lobbied for, a condominium-enabling statute, Judge Kass is an authority on condominium law. In 1965, Judge Kass served as counsel to a special legislative committee that drafted the statute creating the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency, now known as MassHousing. Judge Kass has lectured frequently in continuing legal education settings on real estate-related subjects and appellate practice. He is the editor/author of an MCLE publication, Legal Chowder.

Judge Kass received his B.A. from Harvard College and his J.D. from Harvard Law. He serves on REBA/DR's Board of Directors.

ARTHUR P. KREIGER, ESQ.

Mediator

Arthur Kreiger, co-founder of Anderson & Kreiger LLP, has more than 25 years of experience practicing environmental and land use law as a litigator, advocate, counselor and mediator. His areas of expertise include oil and hazardous material contamination, wetlands protection, permitting, environmental impact review, environment insurance, zoning (including agriculture, religious and educational uses and day care), subdivision control and other local permitting and regulation, and other environmental and land use matters.

For nearly 20 years, Mr. Kreiger has successfully mediated cases through the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection (DEP), court panels, and privately. He has taught Advanced Environmental Law, addressed judges on the management of complex environmental cases for the Flaschner Judicial Institute, and has written and lectured extensively to the legal and business audiences on a variety of topics.

Mr. Kreiger co-chaired the Steering Committee and the Litigation Committee of the Boston Bar Association's Environmental Law Section, and REBA's Environmental Committee. He is a cum laude graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and he received his J.D., with honors, from Columbia Law School.

REBA DISPUTE RESOLUTION, INC.

BARBARA J. MACY, ESQ.

Mediator, Case Evaluator

Barbara Macy has practiced law in Boston for more than thirty years. She has acted as mediator or represented clients in disputes arising in the contexts of buying and selling real estate, condominium issues, probate, unmarried partner dissolutions, malpractice, cooperatives, title, consumer protection, divorce, zoning, boundary issues, landlord-tenant, employment, and criminal cases, among others. Attorney Macy has served as mediator for REBA's pro bono residential foreclosure mediation program in the United States Bankruptcy Court since the inception of that program, with an exceptional record of settlements.

In addition to her private general law and mediation practice, and her work with REBA's foreclosure mediation program in the Bankruptcy Court, Ms. Macy is a member of REBA's Condominium Law and Practice Section, participates in the Lawyer for the Day program at the Suffolk Probate and Family Court, and has acted as a conciliator for civil cases in the Boston Municipal Court. She has also served as a member of the Massachusetts Bar Foundation's Society of Fellows since 1994, reviewing IOLTA funding requests.

Ms. Macy received mediation training at the Community Dispute Settlement Center and is admitted to practice law in Massachusetts, the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts and the United States Supreme Court. She is a graduate of Boston University (cum laude, 1980) and Northeastern University School of Law (J.D., 1984).

JOEL M. RECK, ESQ.

Mediator, Arbitrator, Case Evaluator

Joel Reck has more than ten years of varied mediation experience involving the following types of disputes:

- Development & land use
- Condominiums
- Construction
- Family businesses
- Workouts & foreclosures
- Easements, boundaries & adverse possession
- Leases
- Employment
- Personal injury
- Professional malpractice

Currently listed in The Best Lawyers in America in the specialties of Alternative Dispute Resolution and Real Estate Law, he has been listed as one of the "Nation's Top 10 Real Estate Lawyers" published by the United States Lawyer Rankings guide and named as a leading individual in real estate law in Massachusetts by Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business. He served as Chair of the Real Estate Section and as President of the Boston Bar Association and of the Boston Bar Foundation and served on the governing boards of the Massachusetts Bar Association, REBA, the American Bar Association and Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education. He is the recipient of REBA's Richard B. Johnson Award, the Association's highest honor.

Mr. Reck is a member of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers and its Leasing Committee. He is also a former Chair of the Wayland Zoning Board of Appeals and of the Boston Harbor Island Alliance, now Boston Harbor NOW. Mr. Reck has been a former chair and board member of many other non-profit organizations and has served on various governmental task forces.

Mr. Reck is a retired partner from Brown Rudnick LLP and is the former Chair of its Real Estate Department. His practice consisted of structuring, managing and closing sophisticated commercial real estate transactions throughout the United States and included several of the largest development projects and leases in the Greater Boston area. He received his B.A. degree from Bowdoin College and his J.D. degree from Harvard University. He currently serves as an Adjunct Professor at Boston College Law School and as a Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education faculty member to train and certify lawyers to be mediators.

REBA DISPUTE RESOLUTION, INC.

BETTE J. ROTH, ESQ.

Mediator, Arbitrator, Case Evaluator

Bette Roth, a full-time mediator and arbitrator, has handled more than 800 cases involving a wide-range of commercial, employment, securities, construction, real estate, professional malpractice, and family business/real property ownership disputes. Among others, she has settled in mediation real property disputes involving breach of the purchase and sale agreement, adverse possession, easements, title, zoning, inspection, and variance disputes involving the city, family, and surrounding neighbors. Before 1992, Ms. Roth was a trial lawyer for several years in private practice and before that with the federal government. In addition to REBA Dispute Resolution, Ms. Roth mediates and arbitrates with American Arbitration Association (AAA), CPR Panel of Distinguished Neutrals, FINRA, Resolute Systems, Inc., and Case Closed. She is certified by the International Mediation Institute in The Hague.

Ms. Roth has spoken extensively on mediation and arbitration for MCLE, the Boston Bar Association, where she served as co-chair of the Dispute Resolution Committee of the Litigation Section, and the American Law Institute-American Bar Association Committee on Continuing Professional Education (ALI-ABA), and she has trained arbitrators through MCLE and mediators through AAA. She has published numerous articles on dispute resolution with Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly, The Practical Lawyer (ALI-ABA), the Boston Bar Journal, PIABA, NSCP Currents, MCLE, CCLE, and on antitrust through The Antitrust Bulletin. Ms. Roth is the primary editor and contributing author of the national two-volume text, The Alternative Dispute Resolution Practice Guide (© 1993-2009 Thomson/West), a finalist for the 1994 CPR book award. This text is widely cited by litigants and judges, and she has become a staple in most law libraries. She publishes its yearly updates, which has kept her on the forefront of dispute resolution developments for the past 17 years.

Recognized for her work in dispute resolution, Ms. Roth was named a "Super Lawyer" in the field of DR by Boston Magazine and Law & Politics Magazine for each year since 2006, and in 2001, she received the John Dunlop Dispute Resolution Award from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for her work in mediation. Ms. Roth also teaches mediation at Boston University School of Law.

THE HON. ALEXANDER H. SANDS III (RET.)

Mediator, Arbitrator, Case Evaluator

Judge Sands comes to REBA/DR with more than 45 years of experience as a judge, attorney, and ADR practitioner. Judge Sands served as an Associate Justice of the Massachusetts Land Court from 2002-2015, and as a recall justice from 2015-2017, where he authored many decisions of first impression. During his time on the bench, Judge Sands was a pro-active participant in the Land Court's robust court-connected alternative dispute resolution program, always stressing the mediation option at initial case management conferences. He also drafted revisions to the Time Standards of the Land Court, implemented in 2004.

With 15 years on the Land Court bench, his experience on municipal boards and more than 30 years in a transactional real estate practice, Judge Sands is uniquely qualified to mediate any real estate dispute, particularly zoning, permitting and land use matters. He also has extensive experience in affordable housing, with many such cases on the Land Court, resulting in his teaching a unique course on the subject in several Massachusetts law schools. All of these experiences have honed his role as a communicator and facilitator in ADR matters. In fact, several attorneys involved in recent mediations have remarked that he was able to settle "impossible" real estate situations.

In 1977 he was a founding partner in the Boston law firm of Lynch, Brewer, Hoffman & Sands, and was head of the Real Estate Department, specializing in complex transactional projects in both the residential and commercial fields. He was a member of the Gloucester Planning Board from 1984-1991, where he focused on zoning, land use and subdivision law.

From 2005-2010, he was on the Massachusetts Bar Association Law Review. He has taught seminars for MCLE and the MBA in real estate law, and he has been a judge on moot court panels for Harvard Law School and for high school competitions with the Massachusetts Federal Courts. He is a member of the Abstract Club and the Massachusetts Judges Conference, where he received an award in Judicial Excellence presented in November 2017. He was a primary speaker for the International Land Registration Conference held in Dubai, UAE in 2016.

Judge Sands received his B.A. from Williams College and his J. D. from the University of Virginia School of Law. He has served on many civic, religious and charitable organizations, including Chairman of the Board and Artistic Director of the Annisquam Village Players, one of the oldest continually operating community theaters in the US (where he has directed an annual summer musical for the past 25 years), and on many committees of the Annisquam Village Church in Gloucester, MA. His zest for life has inspired him to write two legal mystery novels, and to run the Boston Marathon annually from 1991 to 2007. In 2014, Judge Sands received a Gloucester Citizenship Award. In 2016, he fulfilled a bucket list challenge by climbing Mount Kilimanjaro in Africa. Judge Sands is a member of REBA/DR's Board of Directors.

REBA DISPUTE RESOLUTION, INC.

F. SYDNEY “SYD” SMITHERS IV, ESQ.

Mediator, Case Evaluator

Syd Smithers joined the firm of Cain Hibbard & Myers PC in 1971, concentrating in all aspects of residential and commercial real estate. He became a partner and has been directing the firm's Real Estate Department since 1976.

Mr. Smithers is a long-time member of REBA, having served as a member of the Association's Executive Committee, Board of Directors, Chair of the CLE Committee, as well as President in 1987. He was presented with the Association's Richard B. Johnson Award in May of 2001. He also has been a member of the MBA, the Berkshire Bar Assoc., The Abstract Club, NELTA, ALTA, the Mass. City Solicitors and Town Counsel Assoc. & the MCLE Real Estate Curriculum Advisory Committee. In 1998, Mr. Smithers was elected a Fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers.

In addition to being active in his local community, Syd has served as trustee for The Trustees of Reservations for many years and has served two terms as chairman of its board of directors. A respected author and lecturer, Mr. Smithers' publications include Massachusetts Highway Law for Surveyors and contributions to Crocker's Notes on Common Forms (8th Ed., MCLE 1995, Supp., 1997, 2000), Massachusetts Municipal Law (MCLE, 2002) and Real Estate Title Practice in Massachusetts (MCLE, 2003). Mr. Smithers is a graduate of the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and Boston University School of Law (J.D.).

THE HON. J. OWEN TODD (RET.)

Mediator, Arbitrator

Judge Todd served as an Associate Justice of the Massachusetts Superior Court from 1988 until his resignation in 1992. During his judicial appointment, he presided over a variety of areas including construction, commercial real estate, commercial contract, land use and environmental law. Before his appointment, he was a senior partner in the litigation department of Hale and Dorr, practicing in Massachusetts State and Federal Courts, including the Tax Court. Having returned to the practice of law, he concentrates on trials involving real estate, complex business litigation, intellectual property disputes, tax and corporate securities litigation.

Judge Todd's extensive experience in mediation and arbitration includes matters of environmental issues, complex commercial litigation, employment discrimination and harassment, patent and copyright claims and divorce issues.

A respected author and lecturer, Judge Todd has served as President of the Massachusetts Trial Lawyers Association. He also holds memberships in the American College of Trial Lawyers, the American Bar Association, the Massachusetts Bar Association and the Boston Bar Association. He was Sudbury's Town Moderator and has been the recipient of numerous educational trusteeships and fellowships. Judge Todd is a graduate of Harvard University and Boston College Law School (J.D.).

JOSEPH P. J. VRABEL, ESQ.

Mediator, Arbitrator, Case Evaluator

Joe Vrabel is General Counsel to Blaisco, LLC. He was a senior partner for 22 years at the law firm of Bowditch & Dewey, LLP. His expertise is primarily in corporate governance, commercial finance and commercial real estate. He also has extensive experience in all varieties of commercial bank loans, bond financings, health care financings, private placements, workout situations, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and all types of business transactions. His other areas of practice have included general corporate representation, particularly situations including investment strategies and business planning.

Mr. Vrabel has served on numerous not-for-profit boards of directors, including Longfellow's Wayside Inn, the Massachusetts Bar Foundation, Framingham State College, and Crossroads Community Foundation, where he was a Founding Trustee. He is Past-President of the Massachusetts Bar Association, the Massachusetts Bar Foundation and Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education, Inc. He has served as the Massachusetts State Chair of the American Bar Foundation and on the American Bar Association's House of Delegates and on its Standing Committee for CLE. Law firms and governmental agencies frequently retain Mr. Vrabel as an expert witness on the ethical standards and legal duties of attorneys in corporate law, real estate and commercial finance issues and transactions. He is a AAA-certified mediator/arbitrator of commercial, real estate, and business disputes.

Mr. Vrabel is the author of numerous publications and a requested speaker before a variety of legal and non-legal groups. He teaches business law at Babson College in the undergraduate and graduate MBA program and also teaches Public Law at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill in the graduate school of Government, Master of Public Administration program. Mr. Vrabel is a graduate of Lake Forest College (B.A.), Boston College (J.D.), and Harvard Law School (Mediator Certification). He is also Adjunct Professor of Law at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

REBA DISPUTE RESOLUTION, INC.

EMIL WARD, ESQ.

Mediator, Arbitrator, Case Evaluator

Emil Ward has practiced law for over three decades, during which time he has lectured in the area of landlord and tenant law, has given seminars to landlords and tenants, and to the attorneys for each group, to brokers and judges. During his years in practice, Emil has served as dispute resolution neutral, mediating disputes successfully in a variety of real estate fields, particularly landlord/tenant conflicts. He brings a broad perspective to his mediation practice, having represented clients in property partition cases, premises liability, partnership dissolutions, easements, housing discrimination, condominium disputes, foreclosure and title issues.

Emil has taught law at Suffolk University Law School and Boston University Paralegal School. He has been a guest commentator for several television programs and has given television interviews regarding rent control and landlords' and tenants' rights. He was also a guest contributor for over a year on "Real Estate Radio" on WBZ radio. Emil has testified before the Massachusetts legislature on various real estate bills. As a consultant to the Massachusetts Association of Realtors (MAR), Emil has taught their landlord and tenant courses, and has written pamphlets for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the Massachusetts Association of Realtors, summarizing the rights of landlords and tenants. Emil has written two books on landlord-tenant law, having published a treatise/cum practice manual on the subject in 1996 entitled, Massachusetts Landlord-Tenant Practice: Law and Forms. The second book, available on Amazon, is entitled, Massachusetts Landlord-Tenant Practice: Law and Forms; Security Deposits and Last Month's Rent and focuses on how to avoid violating the law and how to avoid treble damages and attorney's fees if you have breached the security deposit laws. Emil is co-chair of REBA's Residential Landlord/Tenant Section.

DAVID E. WILSON, ESQ.

Mediator, Arbitrator, Case Evaluator

David Wilson, a partner at Corwin & Corwin LLP in Woburn, practices exclusively in the field of construction law, representing subcontractors and suppliers, general contractors and construction managers, sureties, designers and owners, in matters ranging from general advice to trials in district and state courts.

Mr. Wilson has lectured and participated in numerous classes and seminars on construction law with Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education, Suffolk University Law School, Massachusetts Bar Association, Boston Bar Association and Real Estate Bar Association, and with various trade groups, including the Associated Subcontractors of Massachusetts for which the firm is general counsel. He has also drafted significant legislative bills pertinent to construction, a number of which have been enacted into law.

In addition to REBA, Mr. Wilson is an active member of the Boston Bar Association, a former co-chair of its Committee on Construction Law, a former co-chair of its Real Estate Section, and a former co-chair and present member of its Education Committee, and he is also active in a number of charitable organizations. Mr. Wilson is President of Team Heart, Inc., an International Non-Governmental Organization which travels each year to Rwanda to perform life-saving open heart surgeries while helping the country develop its own cardiac surgery program; he is a Director of The Circuit Theatre Company, a talented group of young people that has become one of the most innovative companies in Boston; and he is a long time participant in the Pan Mass Challenge, a 200 mile cycle ride that has raised over $400 million for the Jimmy Fund of the Dana Farber Cancer Institute.

Mr. Wilson received a J.D. in 1983 from Boston University School of Law, and a A.B. in 1977 from Brown University.

JOHN G. "JACK" WOFFORD, ESQ.

Mediator, Arbitrator

Jack Wofford is a full-time mediator and arbitrator. In solo practice since 1993, Mr. Wofford mediates and arbitrates a wide-variety of disputes, including commercial, employment, environment, family-owned and other closely-held business, insurance, organizations, personal injury, public policy, and complex development, real estate, construction and transportation projects. He has also worked with issues of title insurance companies for damages from alleged wrongful certification of title, of bonding companies for failures in construction and of tort liability insurers for environmental cleanup and damages from hazardous waste.

In 1999, President Clinton appointed Mr. Wofford to a seat on the Federal Service Impasses Panel, which resolves disputes in negotiations between the Federal Government and its unionized employees. In the 1970's, Mr. Wofford served in both state and federal government, as Director of the Boston Transportation Planning Review, as Associate Commissioner of the Massachusetts Department of Public Works, as the first Director of the Central Transportation Planning Staff for the Boston region, and as Deputy General Counsel of the US Department of Transportation.

Mr. Wofford is a graduate of Harvard College and Oxford University (Rhodes Scholar) and Harvard Law School (LLB). He received mediation training at the Massachusetts Office of Dispute Resolution, the Program on Negotiation at Harvard Law School and Cambridge Dispute Settlement Center.